Substation Zoning Approved

THE TOWN RECORD

By MONTE DAYTON

DONALD MOSSI, 23-year-old product of the Jefferson schools, is cutting a swath in the baseball world as a pitcher with Tulsa of the Texas league.

Although losing Friday to San Antonio in a nationally broadcast game, Mossi struck out seven batters and in de woids of dat immortal announcer, DIZZY DEAN, "Watchin that kid hurts my arm when I sees him throw that fast one."

Mossi started out with the Sarto A.C. here when he was 13. He still plays with the JOE SARTO club when he comes home for the winter layoff.

With the Tulsa outfit now, where he was optioned from his owners, the Cleveland Indians, Mossi has tossed a mean 99 strikeouts, averaging almost one an inning, which aint bad.

One of Daly City's leading fathers (both in number of offspring and filial duty) PETE MARKOVICH, took the afternoon off and escorted three of his young ones to the zoo the other day.

Occasion was the fifth birthday of eldest son FRANK. Sons MIKE and PETER LLOYD were also in the zooing party. A bonafide celebration followed in the evening at family's home.

JIMMIE FARRAS, recent recipient of the Silver Star, has just been put down for a Purple Heart.

Nephew of JOHN SACALDASIS of the Daly City coffee shop, he was wounded (one of the many times) in Korea April 16, entitling him to his latest award.

Vacationing in the southland is RALPH LAWRENCE, Doelger public relations dispenser.

Bouquets and nosegays department: One of the insurance game's outstanding life underwriters is none other than Daly City's ARNOLD L. PANELLA.

The Penn Mutual company has honored Arnold for being one of the 1000 underwriters in the U. S. (out of 200,000) who has sold a million dollar's worth of policies for two consecutive years.

According to general agent FORREST J. CURRY, Panella will again qualify before the end of this year and then will receive a life membership in the Million Dollar Round Table, of which only 300 underwriters qualify.

You can bet your life Panella is really hustling.

Loose verbiage: "People just die to come to Colma."

A couple of rebels from the Emporium (we'd better not give names or their might be an inquisition) couldn't find the articles of attire they wanted at the Big Store, so dropped into JIM O'BRIEN'S haberdashery and promptly picked out the garments needed. End of plug.

The Daly City Chamber of Commerce has taken up holding special meetings on Tuesday, sans business. At least this is the report filed over the telephone by BILL KENNEDY, president of the organization.

Kennedy said, "Nothing happened! Absolutely nothing!"

JEFF BOARD VOTES TO UP NUMBER

The Jefferson elementary district board of trustees will have its ranks increased by two next May, according to a ruling passed Thursday by the local board, in compliance with a state law.

The new state edict requires that all school districts with average daily attendance of more than 300 shall have a board consisting of five members. At present the Jefferson board numbers three.

The two new trustees will be chosen next May, according to regular trustee election procedure.

Mrs. Helen Cheatham, chairman of the board, expressed hearty approval of the new plan. "I have requested a five-member board many times in the past, but never had any support," she said.

Gillies Thanks Council For Their "Cooperation"

The city council Monday night received an oral thank you from Walter Gillies, member of the Recreation commission. Gillies commended the members for their cooperation in the matters of Marchbanks, Lincoln and Frankfort playgrounds.

He predicted that the increase of population in Daly City would cause the recreation commission to seek further "cooperation" from the city council in the not too distant future.

QUARTER OF MILLION COLLECTED BY THE WATER DEPARTMENT

The Daly City water department collected over a quarter of a million dollars during the fiscal year extending from July 1, 1952, to June 31, 1953, according to the annual report filed in the office of City Clerk B. C. Ross.

A breakdown of the figures disclosed that $202,455.13 resulted from water sales; $24,925.61 was charged for the installation of water meters and garbage collection receipts added up to $24,549.70. The total is $251,930.44.

City Clerk Ross said that this was undoubtedly the largest sum ever collected by the water department during a single fiscal year. He attributed the high collection to the number of homes and apartment buildings constructed in the Daly City area during the past year.

Arthur Bodien, water commissioner, pointed out that the water department is one of the few departments in municipal government which operates at a profit.

ANDERSEN PRODS HIGHWAY DIVISION FOR SIGNALS

Two Daly City Offers Regarding Alemany Signals Rejected

An attempt by City Administrator Dan Andersen to prod the state division of highways to speed up the erection of signals on Alemany boulevard may have done some good, Andersen predicted today.

According to Andersen, he telephoned the San Francisco office of the division to see how long the delay caused by a request for a three-way signal instead of a two-way would take. When they told him that they didn't know, he offered to contact Sacramento himself. The person he talked to decided that the San Francisco office would take up the matter as quickly as possible.

Another offer made by Andersen was to accept four-way stop signs as a stop-gap measure. This was rejected, and the request for the three-way signals would be speeded up, Andersen was assured.

As the matter stands now, money has been apportioned to place two-way signals on Alemany boulevard. This has not been done because of the request for the three-way signals. It is understood that the two-way signals will be installed in the event that the three-way signals request is turned down because of lack of funds.

Council Calls Bids On Westlake Park

The prospect of a new park in Westlake moved a step closer as the city council Monday night called for bids for removal of willow trees on the 10-acre site.

Bids will be opened at the city hall Tuesday, August 11, at 8 p.m.

New Improvement Group Announces Plans For Progress

To Work For Road Improvement, Less Government Waste

A policy of north county road improvement, reduction of extravagance in government and general civic improvement was formulated Monday night by the board of directors of the newly-formed Northern San Mateo County Improvement association.

The group, organized less than a month ago by a number of Daly-City-Colma businessmen and property owners, had earlier gone under the name of the Daly City-Colma association. The new name was selected by the board Monday night.

At the meeting this week a legal committee consisting of George Lagomarsino, Attilio Conserva and Alice "Pat" Van Over was named to set machinery for incorporation of the group in motion.

Discussion of initiation fees and dues was held, with the directors deciding that a "very nominal" fee would be charged.

Police Examination In Broadmoor Will Be Held August 25

Tuesday, August 25, has been selected as the date for the civil service examination for the applicants for the Broadmoor police force, Chief Ray Savage announced this week.

According to Chief Savage, the examination will be conducted by a representative of Sheriff Earl Whitmore of San Mateo county.

Chief Savage reported that four applications have been received to date, but that many more are expected. Police reserves of the Broadmoor department are going to take the examination also, Savage disclosed.

COUNCIL ACTION GIVES ROHL A HAPPY HOLIDAY

J. A. Rohl, local manager for the PG&E, left on his vacation for Lake Tahoe immediately after Monday night's council meeting. He said that the zoning in favor of the substation would allow him to enjoy himself, and that the whole thing should be over by the time his vacation ends. (The whole thing includes the abandonment of Atlanta street, a necessary part of the substation project.)

Rohl said that the zoning approval had relieved him of a lot of strain and worry and that he was very happy about the matter.

Police Cars Bought From Local Firm

At Monday night's city council meeting the bid submitted by Neville Motors, 7360 Mission, was accepted to provide two new Fords for the local police department at a cost of $3638.

While not the lowest bid, Neville's was accepted because they guaranteed delivery within 12 days.

Hughson's and Cecil Whitebone, both San Francisco firms, submitted bids also, but the delivery date was too far in the future and the cars are needed urgently, the council decided.

San Francisco Youths Are Arrested Here With Stolen Automobile

Two 18-year-old San Francisco youths were arrested at 4 o'clock Monday morning by Officers John Coleman and Richard Brohmar of the Daly City police.

Arrested on suspicion were Robert Stanley McCann of 1115 Polk street, San Francisco, and Gordon Nieman Jr. of 2722 Polk street. The two were taken into custody when officers fund them working on the motor of a Ford at Thornton beach. Routine checks with San Francisco and San Mateo county police failed to identify the Ford as stolen. A search of the car disclosed a .32 caliber automatic and a commando knife with a eight inch blade with brass knuckles attached.

Taken to the police station, McCann admitted that the Ford was a "hot car" from near 22nd avenue and Lawton in San Francisco.

The two youths were turned over to the San Francisco police for further investigation.

IT'S ALL OVER BUT THE SECOND READING TO VACATE ATLANTA

By Joe Bryan

Fifteen persons were present in the council chambers at the city hall when the repeated predictions of Mayor A. J. Gaggero and City Administrator Dan Andersen came true as the city council zoned industrially the desired area for the proposed Pacific Gas and Electric Co. substation.

The matter was the next to last one on the agenda so the crowd had to wait while the council waded through routine business in a meeting which was delayed for 20 minute pending the arrival of councilman J. Paul Green.

Opponents of the placement of the substation near the Colma school took one last swipe at the measure before it was passed.

Sanford Vickers

Rising on a point of order, Sanford Vickers accused the members of the council of not making a thorough investigation into the proposed site of the substation. He declared that the location was the only direction in which Daly City could make a residential expansion. He charged that a local real estate man had told him that he was going to get rid of all of his units in the area before the substation was under construction.

Mayor Gaggero answered that he, personally, had made a thorough investigation of the area.

Councilman Green pointed out that the planning commission of which Vickers is a member had approved the area.

J. A. Rohl

J. A. Rohl, manager of the local branch of the PG&E asked for the floor and was granted it. He presented a letter which City Clerk B. C. Ross was directed to read into the minutes of the meeting. The letter was from a group of property owners whose land adjoined the substation site. The letter stated that none of the undersigned objected to the construction of the substation, that they did not feel that the building would detract from the value of their property and that as far as they were concerned the PG&E could go right ahead.

When Rohl finished, a Mr. Danials of the PG&E arose to plead the cause of his company. He stated that the need for the new substation was acute. He explained that the PG&E was serving the Daly City area with the same two lines which they had been using 10 years ago. He predicted that the new substation would allow for five new lines. The council was warned that a drunken driver striking a pole on Geneva avenue could put 80 per cent of Daly City out of electric power.

The Voting

When the question was called for City Clerk Ross called the role. Councilman Ed Dennis answered with a loud, emphatic, "NO." Councilman Green's "Aye" was just as vociferous. Councilman Joe

BROADMOOR WOMAN SUFFERS SEVERE BURNS

A Broadmoor woman lay for several hours suffering from second and third degree burns over 40 per cent of her body before the police were notified to take her to the hospital.

Mrs. Kathleen Sifford, 35, of 1034 Gilman drive, was driven to the hospital by Officer Gale Galusha of the Broadmoor police. At that time she was described as being "in a condition of extreme shock."

Later Mrs. Sifford was removed to the Community hospital in San Mateo. Physicians at the hospital described her condition as satisfactory.

Officer Galusha could offer no explanation for the long delay between the accident and the calling of the police. He attributed the fire to a cigarette which apparently caught Mrs. Sifford's gingham dress on fire while she was in the garage of her home.

BALDINI HIRED

Louis Baldini, South San Francisco architect, was officially hired by the city council Monday night to draw up plans for the new Westlake fire house.

John Blaume, the engineer who is supposed to finish the Brunswick street extension, has not received the official go-ahead as yet, according to City Administrator Dan Andersen.

VAN OVER RESIGNS AS C OF C SECRETARY

Resignation of executive secretary Pat Van Over was accepted by the Daly City Chamber of Commerce board of directors at a meeting held Tuesday.

Mrs. Van Over asked to be relieved of the position, explaining that press of other business made it impossible to carry on with the work.

The board took no action toward hiring a full-time paid secretary, although there has been considerable discussion on the matter, and, at present, the office remains vacant.

A new board member, Fred Martin, was installed at the Tuesday session, to replace Vince Bowman. Under the Chamber by-laws, a director who fails to appear at three consecutive meetings may be dismissed.

Board Of Supervisors Denies Request For Traffic Bureau Here

There will be no traffic fines bureau in Daly City the San Mateo county Board of Supervisors informed the city council by mail this week.

The Board of Supervisors went on record as being satisfied with the system as it is, although they are backing legislation in Sacramento to make a change in the judicial district for the northern end of the county.

JUDGE DRAPER RULES AGAINST FULFORD

The test suit brought by Joseph Fulford against the Jefferson Union high school district trustees failed to force a renewal of his contract when Superior Court Judge Murray Draper upheld the contention of the trustees that Fulford and 10 other teachers did not have the required terms of service to be protected by state tenure laws.

Fulford, a teacher of mathematics and photography, had been on the Jefferson Union high school faculty for three years. During this time attendance at the school soared over the 850 mark which was set by the legislature for tenure requirements. Fulford and his attorney Thomas Jenkins contended that this entitled him to the tenure privileges. The trustees said that the 850 mark for attendance was required for the full period of service. Judge Draper upheld the trustees.

Council Reappoints Four To Posts On Commissions

Four persons were reappointed to positions on two Daly City commissions at Monday night's meeting of the city council.

Slated to continue as members of the planning commission are Fred Bertetta and Thomas Tromborg. Mrs. Gordon T. Carlson and Walter Gillies will remain as members of the recreation commission.

LAGOMARSINO, RECTOR SHOW AERIAL SURVEY TO LOCAL PARKING COMMITTEE

An aeriel survey was presented and explained to the Chamber of Commerce committee on parking by George Lagomarsino and Walter Rector at Wednesday night's meeting. This survey graphically demonstrated physical aspects of the parking problem and indicated the principle areas in which the problem is more acute.

Ira Neville reported on an extensive poll his committee had made in the shops in the area as to their attitude towards Daly City's parking problem. The report will be thoroughly studied in order to determine its results accurately but a preliminary examination seemed to indicate that the majority of shoppers require areas where they may park up to two hours without danger of parking citations. A desire for courtesy from the traffic officers was stressed also.

Bob Hunter read reports from Burlingame, Palo Alto and South San Francisco on their solutions to the parking problem. As acting chairman for the meeting, Hunter noted also that the scope of the committee's job goes beyond the mere question of whether or not parking meters are necessary or desirable. The principal problem for which the committee must find the solution is where and how to handle the cars of patrons of Daly City's business district. Hunter said, "These patrons are the life's blood of the commerce of the area and indirectly have a bearing on the survival of the city itself. A city without a healthy business area connot maintain city services by taxes or residential areas alone."

The committee expects to be able to compile all of its reports

ONE MAN'S ANSWER TO THE PARKING PROBLEM HERE

THIS WILL BE A parking lot eventually, according to A. R. Haskins who has been spending many hours keeping an eagle eye on the work done by caterpillar operators and jack hammer handlers. Haskins (left) is caught swinging his scrutiny from the caterpillar driver to the jack hammer operator.

The new parking lot will be on Bepler street between the post office and Misison street.

Rumors that the space was to be devoted to a super market were denied by Haskins. Building Inspector George Hopman disclosed that no building permit had been issued to Haskins.

Eichenbaum Son, D. C. Resident, Sues For $406,105

Ralph Eichenbaum of 563 Niantic street, 27-year-old son of Rudy Eichenbaum, bar owner and alleged pal of Jimmie Tarantino, gossip magazine publisher under indictment for San Francisco extortion, has filed a claim of $406,105 from the L. C. Smith contracting company as a result of injuries received in a car-truck mishap on Bayshore highway last fall.

Eichenbaum, whose father Rudy is under indictment with the gossip vendor for assertedly shaking down tavern operators for money under the threat of exposing them, claims that his father's Cadillac struck the rear end of an L. C. Smith truck because the vehicle lacked tail lights.

The complainant claims he suffered various fractures and aggravated an earlier polio condition.

Representing him is Roger Bramy, San Francisco lawyer.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

Everything, even vacations, must come to and end sometime. Mine was no exception and here I am back at the same old battered typewriter trying to get out the news for you. When on vacation one sees new faces and makes new friends but there is never any place like one's old home town and the friends in it. Seems the big events happening in the last few days is the coming home of some neighbors and the leaving of others.

Two things happened to brighten the life of the irrepressible LOUIE COOPER of Winchester street in the past two weeks. One, he spent a nice ten days at Felton swimming and getting a good tan, and the other, which I think was the most important to him, he is now old enough for a driver's license. How time does go on.

There was one sad note on returning. It is always hard to say goodbye to a neighbor but when one has to say goodbye to a neighbor of over twenty years friendship, that is doubly hard. The folks on Los Banos avenue are sorry to part with the DUFFYS but glad they are out of the fog and happy in their new home. All the best wishes from all the neighbors go with them.

News and Views

This is the way to spend a vacation? Grandma Winnie Evans is spending hers baby sitting with her two grandaughters aged 18 months and 4 months. She does take time off on weekends. This last weekend she and her family took off and spent the day in La Honda where they had a picnic and swam and in general had a nice day just relaxing in the sun.

People come and people go. I don't know just which are the luckiest ones. Next week it is the ROBERT FAGANS of Santa Barbara avenue who are leaving us for a week. Where they are going they themselves don't even know. Just get in the car and take off and where you land will be it. Sounds like fun, doesn't it, neighbors? One doesn't really have to have a special destination to have a good time according to them and they'll let us all know about it when they get back.

Here is another way to break up the monotony of vacation days. The GOURMETS and their respective children all took the Sun Tan Special for Santa Cruz one Sunday. They packed kids, lunches, swimming suits, etc., and all had one of the grandest times they ever enjoyed. No matter what it is that this bunch is doing, they always seem to get a lot of fun out of it.

Boulder Creek as usual is one of the most popular places. Spending their vacation there are MR. and MRS. ROY BEECHER and family and their friend ARLENE. While there they took side trips to Ben Lomond pool and one and all are really not only getting a good tan to bring home to the fog but also having a swell time. Happy vacation, Beechers.

Another person missed in the Los Banos area is the little old lady with the little dog who was seen each and every day going up the street. She had a love for flowers and slips which one and all knew. I never knew her name, although I had known her for a long time. She passed away a week ago and another oldtimer has gone to join those who have left before her.

One of the inevitable results of summer vacations seems to be poison oak. The latest victim and a very sad citizen at that, is SHARON CASAD who is bothered more by having to stay home and miss "all the fun" than by the fact of the poison oak itself.

Servicemen

PVT. PAUL A. MITCHELL of Korea was heard from this week. According to him he will trade our summer weather for that of Korea any day. He is also hoping that the truce that has been signed in Korea will last until he gets home. We hope so too, Paul. Not only for you but for all the many others who are so far from home and have been for so long.

All vacations must come to an end and that goes for the boys in the service too. DICK EAGAN of the Navy has returned to duty and at the present time is at Coronada assigned to an ammunitions ship. He expects to leave soon for overseas but the best part is that when the ship makes it's return trip home and finally gets here he will be assigned to Mare Island Navy Yard for the remainder of his "hitch" which won't be too long and then it's back to being a civilian again for Dick.

Have just had a phone call asking me to write this. Neighbors, just because their is a truce in Korea is not the time to forget that there is no truce where the need for BLOOD is concerned. There were casualties even at the last minute before the cease-fire order. The boys are still in hospitals and the prisoners of war will, some of them at least, need their share. One and all know where to go and if you haven't already given for this month why not give now in thanksgiving for the peace that we have at the present.

Items of Interest

Our sympathies are with MRS. MADELINE FELLOWS of Los Banos who has been suffering from an eye infection for the past two weeks. All the neighbors hope that she will be better soon. A welcome diversion for Madeline was a visit from her son, BUD, and family, who drove up from San Jose and stayed for the day.

One of the nicest places to go for a picnic which not too many people take advantage of is Sigmund Stern grove. THE FRIENDLY TWELVE are some that do. They packed up lunches a week ago and all adjourned to the Grove for a picnic. This is another bunch of gals that always seems to be having fun.

Home from a nice trip are MR. and MRS. HOBBS of Risel street. They took a trip to Lake Tahoe, Reno, Carson City and Virginia City. This was a trip of contrasts as some of the places are really "jiving" while others are ghost towns of the past. Wonder where they had the most fun?

Another visitor from our town to Lake Tahoe was MRS. MARTHA WEGNER. She also journeyed to Bernal Falls near Lassen National Park which was most beautiful. Seems a lot of the neighbors went to Tahoe this year. Wonder if any of them met while there?

Well, neighbors, there are many of the neighbors who are still away and many more still have vacations coming. Hope to hear from them when they get back so as to pass on the news to you. There is still a lot of vacation time left. In fact there are five weeks until the school bells ring. 'Bye friends.

SUBSTATION REZONING IS APPROVED

Verducci, called on third, gave a firm low-voiced negative. Councilman James Kennedy tied the vote with his affirmation. This tossed the matter in Mayor Gaggero's lap. He voted "Yes" and the measure passed 3-2.

A related matter followed the approving of the zoning for the substation. This was the vacation of Atlanta street. PG&E officials state that this is necessary before the work can be done on the proposed site of the substation. This was to be the first reading of the resolution since the closing of the hearing took place at the council meeting on July 13.

Councilman Verducci

Before the reading of the Atlanta street vacation, Councilman Verducci stated that there were three questions he would like answered. (1) What was the school board's actions on the vacation of Atlanta street? (2) Was the street Atlanta or Atlantic? (3) When a street is vacated does it extend the property line of persons whose land adjoins the street?

Verducci was informed that the school board was not opposed to the vacation of the street; that the map which called the street Atlantic was an old one, and in error; and that the people did have their property-line extended.

Councilman Kennedy

Another delay on the reading of the vacation of Atlanta street occurred when Councilman Kennedy asked what action the PG&E was going to take on Orange street? This street lies between PG&E property and the school board property. Rohl answered that his company was willing to cooperate with the school board and defray the expense of paving and putting in sidewalks for half of Orange street.

This didn't satisfy Councilman Kennedy. He wanted the PG&E to promise that Orange street would be improved with or without aid from the school board. Rohl said that he had no authority to make such a commitment. Daniels affirmed this and said that he too lacked such authority. Both men promised to see what could be done in the event that the school board refused to do anything about improving Orange street.

Vickers took the floor again and said that the planning commission had made a recommendation for the improvement of Orange street and demanded to know why it had not come before the council. City administrator Andersen disclosed that the matter had been turned over to City Attorney Frank Blum for study.

After this the vote was taken. Dennis and Verducci opposed while Green, Kennedy and Gaggero approved the vacation of Atlanta street. At the next meeting of the council, which is scheduled for August 10, the second reading of the Atlanta street vacation will take place. If it passes the PG&E will have the go-ahead to begin work on the substation. Rohl has predicted that the construction of the substation will take six months. This means that the work could not be finished earlier than February, 1954. First request for the substation was made in April of 1952, Rohl said.

FALSE ARREST SUIT MUST BE ANSWERED WITHIN 30 DAYS

Summons were served on Sergeant David Hanson and Officer Jerry Schaeffer of the Daly City police last week which demanded that they answer allegations by Edward Larios that they beat him up and arrested him falsely.

The two officers will be defended by City Attorney Frank Blum. Blum stated that answers to the summons must be prepared within 30 days unless time extensions are granted. He predicted that the case will not come to trial before the first of next year.

A check with the Yellow Cab Company of San Francisco, who are being sued also, disclosed that the matter has not been decided in any way at the claims office. No attorney has been named to defend against the suit, and apparently no answer was under consideration at the present time.

Larios was arrested on May 3 by Sergeant Hanson and Officer Schaeffer after he assertedly refused to pay Charles Petterson $1.50 for crossing from San Francisco county to San Mateo county. This was in addition to $1.95 registered as fare on the meter of Petterson's cab. Petterson summoned Hanson and Schaeffer to the scene. According to officers' report, Larios answered the door of his 48 Alexander street home partly disrobed and used vile, insulting language while the odor of liquor exuded from him. He was handcuffed and taken to the station after a struggle, the report stated. Later he was released on $50 bail. Judge Thomas L. Bocci acquitted him of an assault and battery charge.

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi said that he would back his two men up all the way. He stated that they had made a legitimate arrest and were in the right. He pointed out that no reprimand was handed to either Hanson or Schaeffer.

FIESTA AIDS, Mrs. C. G. Sznik, co-chairman of the amateur division of the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta, and Mrs. James Doty, in charge of specimen potted plants, meet at the county fair grounds to work on arrangements for the coming event.

business.

"Representation of the district has been poor with a three member board," she continued. Mrs. Cheatham expressed the opinion that under the ned set-up each area in the district jurisdiction would have ample voice.

Had the board not approved the five-member plan, the issue would have had to be placed on the ballot in May. Following its passage, it then would have taken another year to fill the two positions. As the situation now stands, the new board members will be seated following the election.

In case two additional trustees fail to file for election, the state law specifies that appointment of the new members will be made by County Superintendent of Schools James R. Tormey.

In other business at their regular meeting last Thursday, the board:

1. Rejected the $32,733 low bid of the Carrico & Gauthier company for work at the Garden Village school site, after it was learned a "major error in computation had occurred and the contractors would stand to lose several thousand dollars." Instead, the contract went to the B. L. Guisto company of San Francisco. Their figure was $50,700.

2. Ratified an earlier decision and elected officers for the new fiscal year. Mrs. Cheatham will serve as chairman and Michael C. Callan will act as clerk of the board.

3. Hired Miss Evelyne Slater and Miss Betty Brenner as new teachers for eighth and seventh grades, respectively.

4. Agreed to purchase property owned by Joe V. Martinez—to be occupied by a multi-use room for the Crocker school.

5. Set tomorrow (Saturday) at 9 a.m. as the next meeting date.

The Spider To The Fly

Among the railings and rantings of several county officials a few months back (we have the statement on record) was the fact that the county tax rate would remain stable for the coming fiscal year.

These statements, obviously, were merely a matter of feeding the payer of the taxes a lot of unabashed nonsense for purposes of pacification.

The truth is, the tax rate will be up about 10 cents over the $1.238 figure for the previous year.

This means about three bucks more a year that average citizen will chip in to support the county government.

Totalize this with increased school, sewage district and sundry miscellaneous bites, and it means a lot bigger headache for the little man that pays.

What's the reason for San Mateo county's larcenous taxes?

It's simple. The budget goes way up, but the tax roll raises only nominally.

For instance, this year the budget rose $1,831,181 to a new high of $14,645,033. Increase in the secured roll this year was only 5.4, the lowest since the war.

If this was to be a singular case, it wouldn't be so bad. But, due to the fathead methods of promotion, plus the backwoods public relations meted out to visiting industry by the powers in position, the county is doomed to continue the upside-down trend.

The budget will continue to grow fatter yearly, while the roll will show only a picayunish raise.

The county will eventually be a haven for only the opulent, while lesser beings who can't afford to foot hundreds of dollars a year for property taxes will be forced to migrate to counties where the price of living isn't prohibitive.

The solution to the problem is in plain view (as was pointed out by various land experts in a recent survey here) but is apparently not within the intellectual grasp of the present county circus that operates under the big tent in Redwood City.

Industry must be attracted to this area, not frightened away by the greedy eye of the county till. Sure, industry brings tax revenue, but the present approach to the problem has been the come-hither-said-the-spider-to-the-fly sort of thing.

What industry wants is to be shown a modicum of cooperation, perhaps a few concessions and, most of all, it wants a location that fits its demands.

The county officials' attitude has been, "What can you do for us?"

Let's put it on a new basis. What can the county do for industry?

The men in business got there because they've got something upstairs. The men in government just got there.

But, unless a rational approach to the attraction of industry is developed, taxes will continue to rise, business will go on as usual, and some new faces will be seen in Redwood City.

Marchbanks Infield On The Mend

Plaudits are due the recreation department and commission for going ahead with improvements on the Marchbanks infield which has long been a blight on the local park.

Addition of packing to the playing field will result in many more games being played there, and being played safely.

Local recreation workers have acted in response to criticism launched against the unhappy condition of the field.

In the face of the mounting problems of the recreation department, the work has been carried out with considerable dispatch.

The improvements at Marchbanks are another step forward in Daly City's park program.

VETERAN'S BULLETIN

Q. I have a National Service Life Insurance term policy, and I've decided to leave my dividend money with the VA to pay premiums that I happen to miss. What will VA do if my term insurance expires and I don't take action to renew and pay the premium myself?

A. At the end of the term period, VA will pay the premium required for renewing your term policy out of your dividend credit—unless you write to VA and request otherwise before the present term expires.

Q. I plan to take my medical interne training under the Korean GI Bill. Will I be paid GI allowance as an on-the-job trainee, or will I get the higher rates paid to full-time classroom students?

A. You will receive the rates paid to those taking full-time classroom training. However, your medical internship course must be accredited and approved by the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical Association. Its length also must be approved by the Council. No allowances at all may be paid to veterans in non-approved internships.

Q. A few years ago I received an automobile under VA's program of providing up to $1,600 toward the cost of a car for certain disabled veterans. My car is beginning to show signs of wear, and I wonder if I could get another VA grant to buy a new car.

A. Under the law, you are not entitled to another grant to buy a new car.

State Fair Slated September Three

This year will mark the 99th annual California State fair, and it promises to be bigger and better than ever, according to Bert Williams, publicist.

Williams announced that the gates to the fairgrounds will open Sept. 3. The theme will be "California Magic." Displays will portray California's farms, ranches, factories, cities, mountains and streams.

The 773,256 persons attending last year's fair allowed the state to earn a profit of $1,162,884.01.

DALY CITY MEN WILL ATTEND CAL ON SCHOLARSHIPS

Two Daly City men will be attending the University of California on scholarhships this fall. They are entering freshman James Butenhof who will major in letters and science and Staneley Leonard Miller who is a junior majoring in letters and science.

Until the visit of Commodore Matthew C. Perry's American naval squadron in 1853, Japanese vessels were required by law to be built with open sterns, purposely rendering them unsafe for ocean navigation.

Writer Outlines Plan To Give Surplus Food To The Needy In A Letter To The RECORD

The Record
3317 San Jose avenue
Daly City, Calif.
Dear Editor:

I believe that the offer made by President Eisenhower to send $15,000,000 worth of surplus food to Communist-East Germany is most commendable.

But why is it with millions and millions of dollars worth of surplus food on hand in our country, no one ever thinks, no one dares suggest that a portion be given to hungry, half-starved Americans?

Think of what a supply of surplus butter, eggs, ham, beef, lard, sugar and milk every month, would mean to our own old and blind, our own needy children and physically handicapped, to whom this additional help would be a godsend.

We read in the newspapers that congress is considering dumping millions of pounds of butter in Chesapeake bay. We know that rats are eating tons of foodstuffs that are rotting in government warehouses throughout the nation.

According to the June, 1953, federal Social Security bulletin, the average old age assistance payment in the United States is only $48.86; aid to the blind $53.71; aid to needy children $23.45; aid to permanently aid totally disabled $48.59; general assistance $49.26. It takes that much to maintain a dog, yet needy Americans, if you please, are expected to pay food, clothing, shelter and health needs out of this small amount. No wonder the files of our government show doctors' reports proving that these poor souls are suffering from malnutrition.

During the depression the unemployed were given food stamps to purchase surplus foods. Why can't the same thing be done today for those on public assistance?

Why can't a bill be introduced in congress and whatever steps necessary be taken to provide surplus food stamps worth at least $50 per month for every recipient of public assistance and those drawing old age benefits, with strict provisions that the states cannot deduct the value of these stamps from the amount of aid the recipients are now getting?

Cordially yours,
George McLain, chairman
California Institute of Social Welfare

MY MAD WORLD

by Leonore Brewer

This has been a relatively quiet week; the drawback to a quiet week is no activities, no column. Not that there has been any dearth of possible doings; after all, this was the week of the Carmel Bach festival, and I would have dearly loved to represent THE RECORD. However, one has to be asked you know, and nobody asked me.

One of the rewards of the uneventful week is that I get caught up on some of my back reading. To give you some idea of how far back I am, this has been my first opportunity to plunge into O'Neill's "The Iceman Cometh" This four and one-half hour tour de force is not exactly conducive to the brighter outlook on life, and leads one to marvel anew at the preponderance of tragedies among the "year's best" plays. And such tragedies. Unlike "Anne of the Thousand Days," whose subject matter may be viewed with the detachment that only four hundred years can give you, they have the quality of pulling you down into their murky depths. Yet I continue to read them with a sort of horrible fascination.

Toward the middle of the week we felt the need of a movie, as you can well imagine, but ours was not the mood in which to brave one of Europe's darker tales, so we hied ourselves to "Shane," our primary objective being to see the panoramic screen. All of you probably know by now that I view the presence of the Hollywood child in the cinema with some disfavor. In this particular instance, Brandon de Wilde was handled very well, with little of the sticky bathos too often found as soon as a child appears in a Hollywood script. If there had only been just a little less of him.

That just about sums up my one objection to "Shane" which was a very satisfactory piece of work in most other respects and completely overwhelming in its outdoor scenes, thanks to the panoramic screen.

One feels tempted to dwell upon the wonderous power of competition, as it is extremely doubtful if the film industry, unless faced with the threat of television, would ever have gone to the expense entailed in such a changeover. But, and this is an awfully big but, whether viewed in the microcosm of a TV screen or on the macrocosms now being installed downtown, the end product is going to have to be worth the viewing, or the money will have been gambled for nothing.

So far the television industry has only one thing to offer—convenience. If Hollywood will just grasp the fundamental truth that a good story, capable actors and competent direction, shaken up with a little imagination, will produce fine films, they can use their new gimmick to lure back their lost audience. And they can hold them!

HOW CAN I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I remove iodine stains from fabrics?

A. If the cloth is washable, soak the spot in ammonia or alcohol, then launder it. On non-washables, apply a thick paste of laundry starch. Let dry thoroughly before brushing the paste off. A few repeats may be necessary before the stain is gone.

Q. What is the best way to wash a clothesline that's dirty?

A. Coil it around a washboard or a piece of wood about that size. Stand it in a tub of hot soapy water and scrub thoroughly with a brush. To avoid twisting or tangling, let it dry right on the board and put it up again when it's completely dry.

Q. How can I tie a tight package for mailing?

A. Before using the string, moisten it. When it dries, it will shrink and tighten up the knots.

Q. How can I remove dog and cat hairs from upholstery and clothing?

A. Stroke the surface lightly with a damp piece of sandpaper, or a damp rubber sponge.

Q. How can I rehabilitate leather shoes that have been out of service for a long time, or dried after a thorough wetting?

A. Rub the surface of the leather with half a raw potato before the shoes are polished. It'll help them to take a good gloss.

Q. What can I do to stiffen a limp veil?

A. Put it between two pieces of waxed paper and run a moderately warm iron over it. Or, dip it in beer, shake it vigorously, and lay it out on a towel to dry.

Q. How can I repair a shoelace when the metal tip has come off?

A. Dip the end of the lace into some colorless nail polish, give it a twist and let it dry. It'll end up stiff enough to poke through the little holes.

Q. How can I take the excess electricity out of a taffeta dress?

A. Hang it in the bathroom while you take a hot shower. Let it dry completely before you handle it again. This will decrease the taffeta's ability to generate electricity when it rubs against a silk or rayon slip.

CITIZENSHIP CAN BE OBTAINED BY ALIEN SERVICEMEN NOW

Honorable service in the United States armed forces may mean quick American citizenship to some alien servicemen or veterans, according to Floyd D. Granger, Veterans Service Officer of San Mateo county.

He explained this is possible under a new law enacted by Congress last June 30th, similar to the one in effect during and shortly after World Warr II. Under the new law, non-citizens who served honorably in the armed forces of the United States for at least ninety days between June 24, 1950 and July 1, 1955, are permitted, under certain conditions, to bypass the normal formalities—including a long waiting period—required by the Naturalization Act.

In order to take advantage of the special citizenship rule, a serviceman or veteran must have been legally admitted to the United States or its possessions, must satisfy the usual immigration tests, and must get two citizens who know him to vouch for his good moral character and loyalty.

A person may be naturalized while still in military service—at home or overseas—by appearing before designated immigration representatives attached to his military outfit.

It was pointed out by Granger, that under this enactment, persons may be naturalized regardless of age. No period of residence in the United States is required after entering the Armed Forces. A petition for naturalization under this law must be filed before January 1, 1956.

For further information, for assistance in preparing and certifying papers, or for advice in regard to other veteran problems, ex-service men and women are invited to bring their discharge papers to the Veterans Service Office, in the Courthouse, Redwood city.

News From The Parks

Marchbanks Park

Spinning wheels on a smooth surface was the scene last Friday at the Recreation Department annual skating party at the beach. Children from Marchbanks composed about one third of the 100 or more youngsters participating in this event. Some of the experts on wheels were Kathy and Terry Rasmussen, Arlene and Mickey Kordoules, Barbara and Marguerite Cripps, Jane Greenwald and Tommy Baker. About one half way through the two-hour long session a series of races were run off. Tommy Fenn spun around three times to capture first in the boy's A group. A fast start and a steadily increasing speed enabled Sandra Gonzales to win in Girls' A division. George Claus and Turpy Rasmussen took firsts in B groups. The climax of these races came in the directors division. Junior Director Mike Sibitz skated into first place with Director Frank Ingersoll a close second.

After the skating was over the crowd went to the concessions. The Big Dipper was the special favorite of Lorien Johnson, Ron Joy and Rich Watso. The Dodgers were kept in action by Jack Bautista, Don Cubic and Mike Chrystal. The whole group joined together for a trip to the Fun House.

The Daly City youngsters were a bit worn on the way home but this is always the end of a day filled with fun.

Boy of the Week

Happy-go-lucky Jackie Bautista claims the spot as Marchbank's Boy of the Week. Just look for a foot long grin and behind it you'll find Jackie.

Jackie's speed gives him a head-start in any sport but he places basketball on the top of his list with baseball running a close second. Jackie's name is on the Westlake Rocket's Roster. Second base is his position.

Being only 12 years old, Jackie will probably be one of the youngest in the frosh class at St. Ignatius. Jackie's brother, Tony, was only 18 when he graduated this May from USF.

Jackie's uncle is a doctor and it is in his footsteps that he hopes to follow.

Girl of the Week

The wheel spins and points to Barbara Cripps as Girl of the Week. This petite lass is 13 years old. She is endowed with shiny blonde hair, sparkling blue eyes, pert nose and good nature.

Barbara's favorite hobby and sport is roller skating. Weekly she travels to the San Mateo Rolladium where she takes lessons in dance skating. Our young lady is already a fine skater and has potentials of being a fine dancer.

Come September Barbara will enter Immaculate Conception Academy as a freshman.

Lincoln Playground News

Lincoln Playground extends greetings of welcome to Pamela Perry, a visitor from Walnut Creek. Another visitor from Burlingame is Bill Lewellyn who is nine years old. He is here for a visit with his grandmother.

The fishing trip and skating party were huge successes. Those who attended the fishing party were:

Virginia Neuman, Eileen and Diane Neuman, Leland Rowe, Mike and Jim Goulden, Shirley Day, Victoria and Vivian Caine, Jim Dale and Frank Neumann.

Those who attended the Skating Party were:

Recreation Arts and Crafts

Three new crafts were introduced at Vista Grande, Jefferson and Crocker Elementary school centers in the fifth week of the Arts and Crafts program—finger painting, decoration of glass and ceramics and making of articles in plastic fabrics.

Finger painting, a very ancient art from the orient has been enjoyed by all ages and boys and girls alike. A new technique was used by applying paint made from starch with brushes instead of hands giving new texture. Two types of use were made: (1) to paint a picture and (2) to make patterns of decoration that will make useful papers for wrapping gifts, covering boxes, match books, knitting needle containers and covering coffee can for cookies etc. The group was shown how to make paints from liquid starch and food coloring so that they could produce their own colors at home.

All centers were eager to learn and double session groups were held in order to give all a chance to make the papers.

At Vista Grande center, inspired by the very generous gift of plastic automobile upholstery, several boys started individually designed link belts, wallets and coin purses using similiar leather craft techniques.

"Dekell" decoration of glass and ceramics was new craft introduced at Crocker and Vista Grande. Boys and girls of eight and older brought discarded glasses, saucers and cups to make new and gay things that in many cases will be an addition to breakfast tables.

Woodburning of trays and placques continued with much enthusiasm. The Stockton Lumber Co. again came to the rescue when our supply became low.

Pyrocord weaving still continues to be a popular craft with new styles of weaving bracelets in the lead. At Jefferson a large enthusiastic group saw a preview of some puppets that several boys were preparing for a future puppet show. At home they constructed a stage which they brought to the community center. The staff is hoping they will give their show at the Annual Arts and Crafts Show August 19 at the Community Center.

All centers are preparing for the big evening show on August 19 at 7 o'clock. Friends and parents are cordially invited to attend and view what the children have been doing this year. Preview shows will be held on the following dates:

Vista Grande—Monday, Aug. 17—10:30 a.m.

Jefferson—Monday, August 17—2:30 p.m.

Crocker—Tuesday, Aug. 18—2:30 p.m.

Boys and girls are asked to bring their articles earlier if possible.

HUNTING BOOKLET

California's 1953 hunting regulations in booklet form are now being distributed by offices of the department of Fish and Game and its 3,000 independent license agencies throughout the State.

The publication was delayed in order to include important changes made at the last session of the legislature.

THREE CLUBS VIE FOR SECOND HALF SOFTBALL HONORS

With a scant four games remaining in the Adult Recreation Softball league second half the title race has narrowed to three heavily-powered clubs.

The speedy Lincoln Lions, first half champs, and the rejuvenated Gas-U-Mat nine each have a pair of victories against no defeats to remain on top of the league's second section.

The well-rounded Daly City Fire Department club is still a strong contender with a 1-1 record. The firemen have yet to meet the league leaders.

Lions Favored

The Lions, who are currently favorites to make a second-half conquest of the league, won a pair in last week's games as they vanquished the Colma Fire Department, 8 to 7, and then squeezed by a hard-luck Aetna outfit, 12 to 10.

In the Colma tilt a big five-run fifth inning, featuring the big bats of Izzy Galenti, John Fischer and Don Wilson, pulled the game out of the fire for the Lions.

The game Aetna crew, who have only one victory in their last six outings, nearly pulled the upset of the year when they fought their way to an 8-8 tie going into the fifth frame, only to have the Lincolnites blast home four runs on four hits in their half of the inning.

Aetna came back with a pair of runs in the last two innings but fell two runs short of the Lincoln tally.

Heavy Hitters

The game featured the hitting of Larry Blanchard, Gene Lorenzo, Bill Firth and John Fischer for Lincoln. Fischer's circuit clout in the second inning proved to be the outstanding hitting effort of the contest. Yeoman work at the plate for Aetna was done by Wathan Zimmer, Van Winkle and Bookout, each of whom smashed out a pair of hits.

The Gas-U-Mat nine, who won nary a game in the league's first half, seemed to have hit their stride in the last half, as they compiled a pair of victories in last week's play.

Their first victim was the Aetna Roofing club, who went down to defeat, 12 to 11, after the Gassers had a big seven-run outburst in the second canto, and a three-run inning in the seventh.

Batters again stole the spotlight, as Nichols and Schmadke went three for four for the Aetna men, while Chelone, Morgon, Drago and Arnold garnered two hits apiece for the opposition.

Colma No. 2

The Colma fire laddies were the second to go down before the Gas-U-Mat power, as they edged, 10 to 7.

Colma appeared in line for an easy win when Drago's wildness accounted for seven firemen runs in the initial inning.

The Gas gang kept packing away at the big margin, however, until they scored the winning run in the seventh of Massoni's double and Huston's error.

Pitching Gem

Pitcher Eddie Arnold, who hurled the final six innings for the winners, came up with one of the hottest pitching roles of the season as he shut out the Colma nine during his stint on the mound.

In the final two games of last week the Daly City fire department lost their first game, 18 to 15, to their Colma brethren in a wild donnybrook. Leading by eight markers going into the final inning, the Daly City nine completely fell apart as the Colma team scored 11 big ones.

Massini, Nannini and Gianni led the Colma onslaught.

The Daly City club got back in the win column in their second game as they nipped the Aetna team, 14 to 13, in a game marked by a barrage of hits.

Aetna scored two runs in the seventh, but fell one run shy of tying it up.

Topping the slate this week is a game between Gas-U-Mat and Lincoln Lions. Both teams are currently tied for first.

SPORTS AFIELD

By Tom Keating

(Editor, Sports Afield Magazine)

There has been considerable tendency in recent years to discredit the idea of hunting with a handgun. In fact hunting laws in many states prohibit the use of a handgun specifically or it is ruled out by minimum energy specifications. Arms expert Pete Brown thinks this is unfortunate since you can have a lot of fun with the small gun.

But even where it is legal I would not recommend hunting with a handgun to anyone unless he is willing to learn the limitations of his weapon and learn to shoot it effectively. This can't be done with one trip to the range. It takes a lot of practice. And you must do a good job of stalking your game.

In an article in SPORTS AFIELD magazine Brown remarks that the handgun is not a weapon for running shots, although he doesn't lay down any hard and fast rules. Such a shot depends upon the circumstances.

Since the hunter is stalking his game and should have ample time for a careful shot, there is no reason why he shouldn't take advantage of the best position he can get for more accurate shooting. When shooting from a standing position, grasp the right wrist with the left hand for a steadying influence.

If you can get a sitting position with the knees up, grasp the right wrist with the left hand and rest both arms on your knees. This makes a very steady hold and you may be surprised at the resulting accuracy. Don't rest your gun barrel over a log or limb—it is apt to change the center of impact of your bullets. Brown suggests a six or six and one half inch barrel on the revolver for the average hunter. The longer barrel may cause you to droop some before you get a shot off.

If you are using a revolver cock the hammer before you start the trigger squeeze. Unless you do this carefully, the clicking may spook your game and ruin your shot if it is at close range.

You can do a quieter job of cocking if you pull the trigger back at the same time you pull the hammer back with the thumb. With the hammer all the way back release the trigger so it can go forward and let the sear hold the hammer. Practice doing this because in the heat of shooting game you are apt to release the hammer before you release the trigger and scare the game by a premature shot in the dirt.

LAKE MERCED POST WILL ENTERTAIN KIDDIES NEXT WEEK

Entertainment for children 12 and under of the Broadmoor and Garden Village area the evening of August 8 at 7 o'clock by the Lake Merced Post 9921 and the Ladies' Auxiliary at the Broadmoor Community center, according to Mrs. Hilda Stettler.

Tentative plans call for movies, pop corn and soda pop for the youngsters, Mrs. Stettler said.

LAKERS LARRUP GRAVE DIGGERS

Daly City Lakers won their second victory in a row by defeating the Daly City Grave Diggers 77-58. The Grave Diggers were in contention throughout the game because of the consistent hustle of Ron Anguillo and Dick Kalinin.

During the first half the Grave Diggers were always close, but then the Lakers switched to a man to man defense that stopped the Grave Diggers cold.

The Lakers were led by Ron Joy who scored 22 digits. Darrell Hutchinson and Rich Watso followed with 20 and 16 points respectively.

Ron Anguillo and Dick Kalinin were high point men for the Grave Diggers with 19 and 15.

This victory puts the Lakers in first place with a 2 and 0 record.

Daly City Rod And Gun Club Enjoys Deepsea Fishing

Last Sunday 20 members and guests of the Daly City Rod and Gun club held their annual deep sea fishing trip on the "Bobby" at Hazel pier near Princeton. The local Izzak Waltons caught 72 fishes of all kinds.

Al Raggozino made the top catch, closely followed by Ed Nenstiel. Chet Flousburg was the first to reach the limit.

Smoky Shallowski, chairman of the event, reported that several members turned pale and greenish in complexion, but outside of that the trip was a success.

Library News

By Lorraine DeFanti

A library service which is unfamiliar to some people is that of State and inter-library loans for non-fiction and specialized material. Through this service borrowers are enabled to procure books and pamphlets from county and public libraries throughout the state of California. If you are interested in obtaining a book which is not available at the local library, request forms can be filled out. The first library the request is mailed to is the San Mateo county library, and if they can not handle it, it is forwarded to the State library or another library in California. Many of these request are filled throughout the year. This month, for example books were received at the Daly City library from Santa Clara and San Luis Obispo county libraries and the Glendale public library, to fill requests from local borrowers. This does not include the regular flow of requests handled by the San Mateo county and state library.

Another library service which is constantly in operation is that of supplying foreign language material. A consistant demand for French, Italian and Spanish novels is met by special three-month loans of small foreign language collections supplied by the state library. Often times these state and inter-library loans require a long waiting period, but if the borrower is patient and does not need the material immediately, every effort is made to expedite the transfering of books from one library to another.

A recently inaugurated service at the Daly City public library is that of weekly story hours throughout the summer months. Under the supervision of Rose Plummer, children's librarian, the story telltakes place every Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. All boys and girls interested are cordially invited to attend.

At the recent convention of the American Library Association held in Los Angeles the following seven propositions were adopted and endorsed by the A.L.A. and the American Book Publishers Council:

1. It is in the public interest for publishers and librarians to make available the widest diversity of views and expressions, including those which are unorthodox or unpopular with the majority.

2. Publishers and librarians do not need to endorse every idea or presentation contained in the books they make available. It would conflict with the public interest for them to establish their own political, moral or aesthetic views as the sole standard for determining what books should be published or circulated.

3. It is contrary to the public interest for publishers or librarians to determine the acceptability of a book solely on the basis of the personal history or political affiliations of the author.

4. The present laws dealing with obscenity should be vigorously enforced. Beyond that, there is no place in our society for extra-legal efforts to coerce the tastes of others, to confine adults to the reading matter deemed suitable for adolescents, or to inhibit the efforts of writers to achieve artistic expression.

5. It is not in the public interest to force a ready to accept with any book the prejudgment of a label characterizing the book or author as subversive or dangerous.

6. It is the responsiblity of publishers and librarians, as guardians of the people's freedom to read, to contest encroachments upon that freedom by individuals or groups seeking to impose our standards or tastes upon the community at large.

7. It is the responsiblity of publishers and librarians to give full meaning to the freedom to read by providing books that enrich the quality of thought and expression. By the exercise of this affirmative responsibility, bookmen can demonstrate that the answer to a bad book is a good one, the answer to a bad idea is a good one.

Speaking on the subject of book burners, suppression of ideas and repression of free thought, one book seller made the following statement, which it seems to me sums up the entire subject in a few well chosen words. He said, "In the beginning was the Word, and then the book. Don't let them be burned or gagged. Defend intellectual freedom." It is up to each and every one of us to defend our personal as well as our national freedom.

DEADLINE CLOSE FOR FIESTA ENTRIES

With the 1953 Fiesta opening less than three weeks away, a final reminder for last minute entries was issued today by William M. Wilson, Fiesta manager.

Entry forms for the new Clothing and Textile division must be received at the Fiesta office not later than 12 noon August 3. This division is open to San Mateo county residents whose hobby is weaving, sewing, crocheting, knitting, or other kinds of fine needlework.

All entries in floriculture and agriculture, both amateur and professional, must be received by noon August 10.

Space is still available for agricultural exhibits, according to Miss Flora Mancebo, director of that department.

Judging will take place the afternoon of August 14, following the traditional judges luncheon. Ninety-five judges, experts in their fields, will assemble at the fairgrounds in the morning to receive final instructions from Professor H. M. Butterfield, University of California agriculturist and chairman of judges.

"All exhibitors, their employees, and assistants must vacate the fairgrounds during the judging," Wilson said.

In keeping with the theme "Western Progress," fairgrounds improvements have given increased space for many new exhibits in every category. The vast Hall of Flowers of the Fiesta building will house one of the most elaborate and largest floral displays presented on the west coast. Agriculture which formerly shared the hall will now be presented exclusively in the new building designed for this purpose. A tremendous new area has been assigned to outdoor gardens. Industrial products, many of particular interest for home use, will be featured in the just completed Home and Industry building.

Other features include free entertainment in the new amphitheatre, community special events, an art exhibit, a talent show, and exhibits by community service organizations.

PICNIC, HOSPITAL VISIT AND INITIATION FOR POST 9921

Veterans of Foreign Wars, Lake Merced Post 9921, and Ladies Auxiliary held their annual picnic at Flood Park, Menlo Park, on Sunday, July 26. It was a gala affair attended by approximately 100 people—members of the Auxiliary, Post and their families and friends. Mr. and Mrs. George Reich were in charge of arrangements.

During the month a most successful hospital party was held for the patients at Ward 7, Palo Alto Veterans hospital, with little prizes and sandwiches and punch being served after the games. President Rose Fisher, Hospital Chairman Stella Magoon and Jean Cuykendall served as hostesses.

The Auxiliary welcomed a new member, Mrs. Tania Earl of 747 87th street, Broadmoor Village, who was initiated on Tuesday, July 28, at the regular business meeting at the Broadmoor Community center.

Vil'ge. Play School To Hold Tea Aug. 1

On Saturday, August 1, the members of the Village Play school will hold a tea at the Colma Community center, Dunks street, to welcome the new members who will enter their pre-school children into the school for the fall session.

This occasion will serve as a workshop orientation meeting, and the orientation chairman, Mrs. Alec Land of Broadmoor Village, will be on hand to help the new members get acquainted with the physical set-up of the nursery school, as well as the aims and principles of the cooperative nursery school movement.

At the present time, plans are being completed for the third annual informal dance, to be held at Colombo Hall, Colma, on August 15, at 9 p.m. Funds realized from the dance will be used to supplement the necessary equipment for the efficient administration of the school and to pay the salary of director, Mrs. Dorothy Malone of Westlake, and the assistant teacher, Mrs. Thelma Beckerman of Broadmoor.

Members of the Village Play school have been extremely gratified by the cooperation of the whole Daly City-Colma community in supporting this project—a community venture which started two years ago when a group of residents of this area met at the home of Merritt and Thelma Beckerman and organized the Village Play school.

Many obstacles were met and conquered before the school officially opened its doors to the small fry, but the friendlines and support of the neighors and friends who purchased tickets to the first dance enabled the school to continue to the present time. It is hoped that the same spirit of cooperation will be present when members of the school call upon the homes at Westlake, Broadmoor, and the surrounding residential areas this year, with tickets to the third annual informal dance.

DWARF DAHLIAS WILL SPRUCE UP THE GARDEN FOR YOU

As the warm weather reaches its peak, there is often need for sprucing up a bare corner of the garden to replace worn out spring plantings or vacation neglected areas. Many plants will come to mind as ideal for hot weather planting. The California Bedding Plant Advisory board suggests one of the top favorites in this group, the dwarf dahlia, which is available at this time of the year as fully developed plants in nursery flats.

Quick color and abundant coverage are two good features of this type of dahlia plus its "take hold" ability even in a full state of development. Such willingness to grow makes it possible to plant dwarf seedling dahlias in full bloom and have them give immediate color that will continue on until a killing frost takes them down.

Dwarf dahlias take full sun and prefer a loose well-drained soil for best results. With a full color range excepting the blue shades, they are best planted in mass beds with solid color borders of dwarf marigolds, dwarf celosia, dwarf petunias, or dwarf ageratum. These plants available in bloom also exhibit fine "take hold" qualities and share the cultural requirements of the dwarf dahlias.

The growth of the dwarf dahlias is tidy enough to make them ideal for use in narrow beds of 18" or more in width or for planting against a house or wall. In such cramped quarters a border planting should not be used as the dahlias will crowd out the lower growing border plants.

Dwarf dahlias do well in pots and can be used as an inexpensive indoor blooming house plant for periods up to two weeks. Similarly they are useful for patio planters or other conditions where soil volume is limited and cultivation is at a minimum.

ISLAND IN SPACE THEORY WILL BE DEMONSTRATED

Astronomically speaking, says George W. Bunton of Morrison Planetarium, we're all marooned on an extremely small island in a limitless ocean of space. All of the stars that we see with an unaided eye belong to our small island universe, the Milky Way. Although it is immensely large by man's standards and contains 125 billion stars like our sun, this island is but an insignificant speck in the void of space.

Facts and theories about a total universe so immense that it defies comprehension and an explanation of the make-up of our island, the Milky Way, will be given at Morrison Planetarium shows next month. The August show is titled "Blueprint of the Universe," Bunton says.

Shows in the Planetarium, at the California Academy of Sciences, Golden Gate Park, are given daily (except Monday and Tuesday) at 2:15, 3:30, and 8:15 p.m. On Saturdays and Sundays an extra show is held at 1 p.m. Also, the special 11 a.m. Saturday show for children will be continued through August.

According to Bunton, the Milky Way is a spiral galaxy composed of about 125 billion stars like our sun. It is just one of approximately 800 million galaxies that are within range of the world's most powerful telescope, the 200-inch instrument at Mt. Palomar. No one knows how many such islands are farther out in space.

All the galaxies that have been observed are moving away from us. The farther away they are the faster they are moving. The speediest ones, traveling at one half the speed of light, are so distant that light from them takes two billion years to reach us.

Our own Milky Way, Bunton explains, is a sort of pinwheel. Its overall shape is flat and round like a pancake, a pancake that has a bulge in its center and is 100,000 light years across. The bulge is a central cluster of stars, forming a kind of nucleus of the galaxy. We and our sun are about two thirds of the way out from this center.

This giant pinwheel is rotating, in the regions of our sun at the rate of one full turn each 250 million years. Thus we not only are traveling about our sun but are also traveling about the center of the Milky Way at a speed of 170 miles per second.

These dizzy facts will be explained, says Bunton, in each Planetarium show during August.

BE CONSIDERATE

Be considerate of pedestrians, advises the National Automobile Club. They have the right to safe passage across the street or highway, and the courteous motorist will not deny them that right.

TROOP 84 SCOUTS "ROUGH IT" IN BROADMOOR

IF YOU CAN'T get to the country, bring the country to you, seems to be the motto of these scouts from Troop 84 in Broadmoor. The youngsters held a three-day outing last week in a vacant lot in the community, where they held demonstrations in camping and worked toward passing various scout achievement tests. Pictured here, (left to right) first row are: Arthur Shanoian, Michael Deal, Lee Schaffer, Jim Gustafson and Willie Hopkins, (second row) Leader Lowell Klaisner, Billy Krueger, Billy McCann, Gary Cowden, Ricky Schwitzer and Don Branstetter. Ice Follies Performers Have Human Side Too

The all new "Ice Follies of 1953" now playing at Winterland, San Francisco, is loaded with champion ice skaters who travel 20,000 miles a year and play 399 performances in 21 different cities. This is a pretty full schedule but these busy people do find time for hobbies. Most any evening you can see lovely Betty Schalow backstage between numbers working feverishly with her crocheting, and she has already turned out enough pretty stuff to fill the average hope chest. Many of the other girls engage in crocheting and knitting, too, while others have highly diversified hobbies, such as bowling, water skiing when the weather permits, and many of the kids have made writing home a hobby, which is always encouraged by the producers, Shipstads & Johnson. A few of this company of 167 people have some highly unique hobbies, such as Phil Skillings who is an expert at leather carving. Frick, of the incomparable team of Frick and Frack, has one of the most pleasant hobbies of all—counting his money. And when he isn't counting he is studying timetables trying to figure out a new way to go home to Switzerland during the vacation. He has already made 13 trips by air to his native city of Basel.

Tickets for this greatest of all ice shows are now on sale at Sherman Clay, San Francisco and Oakland and at Winterland box office. Performances are scheduled at 8:30 nightly, with two Sunday matinees, at 1:30 and 5:30 p.m.

Commodore Matthew C. Perry's father, four brothers and two brothers-in-law were all officers in the U. S. Navy.

INSPECT FAN BELT

Because the fan belt on the modern automobile usually drives the generator in addition to the fan, it is extremely important that it be examined frequently and replaced if found defective, says the California State Automobile Association. Belts that are saturated with oil or grease deteriorate rapidly.

DEFT HANDS AND A BIG SMILE MAIL THE RECORD

MRS. RUTH GIAMMONA IS caught addressing copies of THE RECORD on the day the press broke down for the first time in several years. The machine in the picture is the Address-o-graph which requires the use of both hands and a foot to operate.

The Record At Work

Meet Ruth Giammona -- The Record's Songbird

The song bird of THE RECORD staff flew in the door in November of 1952. She is Mrs. Ruth Giammona, a native Californian who has resided in Daly City since she was nine months old. A member of the class graduated from Jefferson high school in 1942, Mrs. Giammona is the former Ruth Larson of 109 Los Banos avenue.

At the present time Mrs. Giammona is sharing an apartment with her husband Anthony A. Giammona and their three and one-half year old daughter "Ginger." This will be for just a few months and then the Giammona's will take possession of the 109 Los Banos avenue house which they are buying. Mrs. Giammona said, "It seems that I have spent 23 of my 28 years in that house and here I am moving back in."

Just to prove that Mrs. Giammona is no one to fool with, we'd better explain her purchase of the family house, and how it ties in with her "connections at the city hall." It seems that Mrs. Giammona's older sister, Thelma, is the wife of Police Lieutenant Roy Beecher. The Beechers owned the Larson house. It was for sale. The Giammonas bought and are to take possession in November.

When asked about her duties in the office of THE RECORD, Mrs. Giammona said, "Oh, I do everything." Everything turned out to be quite a bit. Here are some of her duties:

She handles circulation. That is, she takes new subscriptions over the telephone. She bills subscribers. She uses the address-o-graph to prepare copies of the newspaper for mailing. She explains to people why they do not get their copy of THE RECORD when subscriptions run out. A difficult task is keeping changes of address straight.

One experience Mrs. Giammona has shared with thousands of other American women is working while her husband attended college. She has held jobs near the campuses of Michigan State college in Lansing, Mich.; near San Jose State college in San Jose, Calif.; and near San Francisco State college.

Some of the jobs Mrs. Giammona has held are: General office work at Michigan State college. On this job she was in charge of all of the photostatic copies of the students scholastic records. Another job she held was with the Kelling Nut Co. in San Francisco. A one-time employee of the International Harvester Co., Mrs. Giammona worked in both the San Francisco and Portland offices. She spent four years with this company.

Asked what she enjoyed doing most, Mrs. Giammona said, "Going to Boulder Creek on weekends, lying around and swimming." Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Larson, Mrs. Giammona's parents have a home in Boulder Creek and spend their time between Boulder Creek and Daly City.

"Ginger" is a perfect angel to hear her mother tell it. However, Mrs. Giammona doesn't take too much credit for this. She says that Grandma Larson has contributed a lot to "Ginger's" loveable disposition.

"My husband is a member of the physical education department at Jefferson Union high school," Mrs. Giammona stated rather proudly. "He went to three colleges and worked five years attaining a high school teaching post."

In addition to handling the circulation of the newspaper, Mrs. Giammona does general office work, takes classified ads over the telephone, keeps track of the display advertising, makes frequent visits to the post office, makes collections from slow-paying advertisers, and manages to keep cheerful enough to sing around the office. However, she confessed that her duties and her family do not leave her much time for hobbies. Evenings are spent cooking, mending, and generally taking care of "Ginger" and husband, "Tony."

Not an ardent sport fan, Mrs. Giammona admitted that she kept her eye on what the athletes of Jefferson Union high school are doing, and said that at one time she was a bowler. She disclosed that she is fond of movies, television and radio shows.

In addition to her sister, Thelma, and her parents Mrs. Giammona has an older brother, Milton, who resides in San Francisco. The older sister and Milton are graduates of Jefferson Union high school also.

KEEP TO THE RIGHT

Whether you're on a three, four or six lane highway, the California State Automobile Association urges you to drive in the right-hand lane unless you are passing another vehicle. It's safer and if others are driving faster than you, the law requires you to keep to the right even if you're driving at limit speed.

Showtime For Talent Offers $25 Bond To Local Performers

"Showtime for Talent" featuring talented individuals and groups chosen at auditions held throughout the Peninsula area will highlight Youth day at the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta.

On Tuesday night, August 18, a show comprised entirely of talent from the local community will take the place of the regular vaudeville shows scheduled for every other night of the Fiesta in the new ampitheatre. "Showtime for Talent" will be a show not a contest, Jack Rooso, Jr., special events chairman, pointed out. Only these acts which are previously selected at auditions will be presented at the Fiesta.

Any individual, 14 years or older, is eligible to audition at any of the specified places. The San Mateo County Fair Association is offering a $25.00 United States Savings bond to each act chosen to perform.

"We are particularly interested in singing, dancing and variety acts — any act that would be considered along the line of vaudeville," Reese said.

Application blanks for "Showtime for Talent" may be secured at any Chamber of Commerce office throughout the peninsula. These blanks should be filled out and brought to the audition. For convenience additional blanks will be available at auditions.

Contestants are requested to bring their own music in the correct key. Musical accompaniment will be supplied those needing it.

Following is a schedule for the only auditions which will be held: Monday, August 3, Odd Fellows Hall, Half Moon Bay, Tuseday, August 4, American Legion Hall, Millbrae; Wednesday, August 5, Knights of Columbus Hall, 217 Baldwin, San Mateo; and Thursday, August 6, American Legion Hall, Redwood City. All auditions will start at 8:00 p.m.

HEIDI MULLER, a 12 year old member of the San Gregorio 4-H Clubs, shows Miss Mancebo the aprons and laundry bag which she has made as entries for the junior class in the new Clothing and Textile division at the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta. Heidi's three guernsey heifers are her other 4-H projects. She won two blue ribbons with her livestock at last year's Fiesta.

TELEPHONE TAX COLLECTIONS HIGH

Excise taxes on telephone use will cost San Francisco and Daly City subscribers about $758,409 this month, R. N. Buell, Pacific Telephone division manager here, disclosed today.

"The telephone company is required by law to collect certain Federal taxes from customers in addition to its service charges," Buell explained. "The amounts are shown on each individual's bill opposite the words "including U.S. tax of.'"

There is a 15 per cent Federal tax on local telephone service. On long distance calls costing less than 25 cents the tax is 15 per cent, and it is 25 per cent on long distance calls costing 25 cents or more.

"The telephone company just hands this money over to the government tax offices," Buell pointed out.

These two Federal taxes on telephone service, both of which were raised to their present levels as World War I emergency measures, made the total excise tax bill of Pacific Telephone users last year $79,000,000.

Ford brings you fine-car
Power Steering at a new low price!

Now you can have America's newest, most improved power steering—Ford Master-Guide—for $40 less than any other power steering in the low-price field.

Yes, you're reading right! Ford has added a brand new "Worth More" to its long list of fine-car features . . . Ford Master-Guide—the newest and finest in power steering . . . a system exclusive in Ford's field.

You're going to love this new kind of steering! A finger turns the wheel even when the car's standing still. Imagine how helpful this can be whenever you're tightly parked! Yet on the road Ford Master-Guide, unlike some systems, gives you the same natural "feel" you'd have without power steering . . . and it's safer, too . . . takes hold only when you need it. Come in and try it!

Handling and parking's a pushover! With the car standing still, you can "dial" the steering wheel with one finger . . . Master-Guide supplies the "muscle" for you! Of course, Fords have always been easy to handle, steer and park. But Master-Guide does up to 75% of the work!

See it...Value Check it...Test Drive it today!

F.D.A.F.

NO RADICAL CHANGE IN DRIVING HABITS
There's no need to learn how to drive all over again with Ford Master-Guide. This natural feel comes mainly from having the force applied close to the wheels. Steering ratio is the same, so you really have complete control at all times!

SO SIMPLE... SO SAFE!...
Master-Guide lets you turn with ease, steer as you're used to! Driving on rutted roads is even safer. And should the hydraulic system ever lose its power (which is highly unlikely) the conventional steering system remains operative as usual.
